Explanations and Reminders
Science: feel free to make a science summary sheet, on any of the pages you read, but one per topic will be fine. Library books that are recommended for next weeks activities in Learning about Animals are: Watch Them Grow by Linda Martin, Ladybug by Sabrina Crewe, or Baby Whales Drink Milk by Barbara Juster Esbensen, Who's Baby Am I? by Shirley Greenway, or Mother and baby Zoo Animals by Caroline Arnold. Also check out The Snowy Day this week for the Literature pockets. You can choose one or more of these books to go along with the First Book of Nature study on Butterflies. Library: History- choose a book to go along with the history topic you will be studying next week in the World Almanac Library of the States Grammar: make sure you record the noun, verb and sentence jingle on the jingle sheet and sentence on the grammar rule sheet.

On each sheet a space is provided for you to record the chores your child has completed for the day.

Phonics Pathways is to be done at the child's pace. There is a space for you to fill in your child's progress.

If there is a blank space on the schedule nothing is scheduled in that subject for the day.
